PRESS RELEASE

This is to announce our departure, myself, Annel Joubert and Bessie Molokomme from MISS LIMPOPO pageant that we have run for so many years now. During this time we produced young formidable girls(now women) who are able to stand their own in the world as we speak. We are very proud of this achievement and still wish them well in their various endeavours.

We are also pleased to announce that we leave the organisation in very capable hands of very formidable ladies with not only the passion, but also vast experience in the pageant and modelling industry. The names will be revealed at an opportune time.

We know so well that these capable women will take the brand to higher heights than we probably could have managed. We are so so grateful for this development.

We would like to take the opportunity to thank all of you for the support you offered through the years. The sponsors, The service providers, The contestants and their parents, The general community . We would not have been able to make it without your trusted participation. Our heartfelt gratitude!

Please continue to support the new directors as they take the brand to new heights.
